House Groups. At our Vision Day on 2nd October many participants were keen to re-establish a network of house groups at St. Margaret's. Meeting in small groups for fellowship, to pray together and study the Bible or a Christian course is valued by many as a way to get to know one another and deepen our faith.

Some groups have kept going during the pandemic, meeting on Zoom or messaging each other, while others are re-establishing themselves face-to-face as restrictions ease. Some of these groups now have more people wanting to join them than can easily be accommodated in a home. Now seems a good time to increase the number of options available.

Meetings can be weekly or fortnightly, during the day or in the evening.

There is some course material available on the bookshelves in church, which you are free to borrow. Some courses are Bible-based, while others explore a theme through a book or film. Different styles suit different groups.

If anyone would like guidance on leading a group or what kind of course to follow, I am happy to help.

If you would like to:
lead a group
host a group
take part in a group
please speak to me after any Sunday service, ring me on 01293 521699 or email me at reader@ifieldparish.org

I look forward to hearing from you, Jill.
